RABA and...

Your Business

Richmond Holiday Market

The Richmond Area Business Association (RABA) is a volunteer organization with a mission to support and help grow the dynamic, diverse business and professional communities of Bolton, Huntington and Richmond.

RABA, a non-profit association, was created to provide support, structure and unified voice for its members and communities, while making a positive contribution to the local economy.

RABA members are located in Bolton, Huntington and Richmond, where more than 300 home-based to global businesses can be found. Regardless of size, businesses reside here due to the rural setting and strong sense of community.

Your Community

Networking Events

RABA promotes better local business exposure, improves communication, provides local discounts, and hosts many local networking opportunities. RABA supports and plans for many local events to encourage community participation and involvement.

The towns of Bolton, Huntington and Richmond together create a dynamic business community, which RABA serves and strives to unite.
